Crawford & Company to hold Euro Crisis & Liability Seminar on 15 November in Rotterdam

Netherlands – Building on the success of previous events, Crawford & Company brings together experts, claims professionals and thought leaders to help organisations understand the liability risks arising from the Euro Crisis.

This one day event will feature a powerful keynote panel discussion outlining the history of the Euro crisis, the implications for the Netherlands and the likely impact on Dutch liability law.

The panel discussion will be led by Arend Jan Boekestijn, former politician, and he can expect challenging questions from the 100 brokers, insurers and multinationals from the local market who have signed up to attend.

Arend Jan Boekestijn will be supported by:

George Oostrom, Country Manager, Crawford Netherlands

Marc van Nuland, CEO Aon, Netherlands

Peter van den Broek, Lawyer

Arthur van Essen, Key Account Manager, Allianz Global

George Oostrom, Country Manager, Crawford Netherlands said “As the Euro Crisis continues, it is sadly anticipated that many businesses will go into bankruptcy and as a result there could be growth in liability claims against Directors & Officers.”
