Broadspire®'s Danielle Lisenbey to Receive Legends Award

ATLANTA – (Jan. 18, 2016) – Danielle Lisenbey, president and CEO of Broadspire, has been selected to receive the Donald T. DeCarlo Legends Award, which she will accept in April during the American Society of Workers Compensation Professional's (AMCOMP) annual meeting in Las Vegas.

AMCOMP presents the award each year to individuals who have shown commitment to the workers compensation arena by contributing time and effort and fostering efficiency of the system. It is a not-for-profit industry organization dedicated to professional excellence in the field of workers compensation.

Lisenbey will join a list of past recipients, including Dr. Richard A. Victor J.D., Ph.D. (2015), executive director of the Workers Compensation Research Institute; Dr. Robert P. Hartwig Ph.D., CPCU (2014), president of the Insurance Information Institute; and Vincent Armentano, Esq. (2013), senior vice president of Business Insurance Claim at Travelers.

In addition to serving on Crawford & Company's executive board, Lisenbey is a founding advisory board member for Women in Workers' Compensation (WiWC) and a board member for Moving in the Spirit. The latter is a nationally recognized youth-development program that incorporates the art of dance to positively transform the lives of Atlanta-area children and teens.
